Membership Terms & Conditions

By signing up for a membership and setting up a Direct Debit payment, or making a one off payment with us, you agree to the following Terms & Conditions.

Membership Payments

Membership payments are collected monthly via Direct Debit through GoCardless. Payments will automatically renew each month unless cancelled in accordance with these Terms & Conditions.

Memberships are charged at a fixed monthly fee on a rolling direct debit and are calculated as an annual average rather than per individual class. The number of classes may vary each month due to calendar differences and planned holiday closures. Fees are therefore the same each month throughout the year and are not adjusted for holiday periods or student absence.

Cancellation Policy

Members must provide 30 calendar days' written notice to cancel their membership. If the required notice extends beyond the next scheduled payment date, the member acknowledges that one final membership payment may be collected.

Cancellation requests must be sent directly to us via email or written message. Cancelling your Direct Debit directly through your bank does not constitute cancellation of your membership agreement.

If a Direct Debit is cancelled without notice, any outstanding membership fees during the notice period will still be due.

Failed or Missed Payments

If a payment fails or is missed, we reserve the right to contact you to arrange repayment.

If payment is not received within 7 days, we will restrict access to classes until the balance is cleared.

Continued failure to make payment may result in termination of membership.

All outstanding fees remain payable during any suspension period.

Refunds

Membership payments are non-refundable once made.

Pay as you go payments

One off pay as you go payments cannot be refunded once made.

Health & Responsibility

By participating in classes, you confirm that you are physically fit to do so.

You must inform us of any injuries, medical conditions, or health concerns in our Microsoft sign up form that may affect your ability to dance safely.

Changes to Memberships or Timetable

We reserve the right to amend class times and membership options where reasonably necessary.

Code of Conduct

We reserve the right to refuse or terminate membership for inappropriate, abusive, unsafe, or disrespectful behaviour towards teachers.
